Rev. R. B. Butler, A. M., will deliver the baccalaureate sermon at Plymouth on Saturday, June 20, at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow.

Mr. Andrew Trever, who has been attending school at Frankfort, returned home Thursday night.

"SAVAGE," the Washington correspondent of The Louisville Post, has the faculty of throwing small bricks that make holes big enough to drive a team of oxen through. Here is one of his latest—

"Every man who loves his country ought to read THOMAS B. REED's farwells to its constituents. It is a gem. Here is something for profound reflection:

"Office, as a ribbon to stick in your coat, is worth nobody's consideration. Office as opportunity is worth all consideration."

"The Democracy of Kentucky has come to stay, and it is here to stay, whom office was opportunity." CARLISLE and LINDRAY dignified office. They shed luster on the Senate. Now Kentucky has set up a ribbon counter, and it is crowded. Every day is better than the day before, and the time when Kentucky took the forenoon row and cut the widest swath in the American Congress—there was a time."

"HENCEFORTH we are to have two kinds of country," says The Philadelphia Record.

To which The Louisville Post replies:

"We have always had two kinds of country. The Northwest Territory was one kind and the states another in 1787. In 1803, the Louisiana Territory was one kind of country and the states another. In 1818 the territory taken from Mexico was one kind of country and the states another. Since 1867 Alaska has been one kind of country and the states another. Since the return of the Republicans to power, Hawaii has been one kind of country, and the states another. Besides, there are Pennsylvania and New Jersey and New York City, all of which differ from each other as they differ from the remainder of the country."

"Therefore the country is not shocked by the alleged novelty of two kinds of country. Those of us who have been too long in the service of the United States, and no novelties whatever in the law as laid down by the Supreme Court. Every state admitted to the Union since the adoption of the Constitution has had the doors opened closed by Congress. Action. Laws have been enacted by the two houses without their consent, save in the case of Kentucky and Vermont, which were never territories. But Kentucky and Vermont did not enter the Union without Congressional action."

"The two decisions merely vindicate the right of Congress to do what Congress has always done."

"We do not doubt the plenary power of Congress—representing the people—to deal with our new possessions; but we are just as confident that Congress will deal with these new possessions; wisely, justly, liberally. God is marching on."

The elegant Queen City will be up to night for Pittsburgh.

The big Indiana will attend to Hominy business tonight.

The Henry M. Steiner will be down tomorrow for Cincinnati.

Business is lively now around the landings along the river.

There is a slight rise from Pittsburgh to Pt. Pleasant, but from the Point down the Ohio continues falling, but still has an excellent boating.

The Trusts are gradually going after the watch factories; therefore, a word to the wise is sufficient. Now is the time to buy a Watch and we are the people to buy from. Come let us show you how cheap we will sell you a good Watch.

MURPHY THE JEWELER

The decision of the Court of Appeals that City Councils, through their attorneys, have right or power to make ordinances estating of taxes, will cause trouble in Bell County. There is scarcely a corporation doing business in Bell that has not made such a settlement, and in Middlesboro thousands of dollars are involved.

The Statistician of the Department of Agriculture estimates the total area planted in cotton at 27,532,000 acres, an increase of 2,111,000 acres, or 8.3 percent, over the acreage of 1909. The average yield per acre is 8.5. It was $2.00 on June 1 of last year. This is with one exception the lowest June condition in twenty years.

EASILY PROVEN.

There is Not the slightest necessity for leaving Mayville to look for fraud.

The experience given below by this well-known Mayville citizen is easily proven. The proof he offers for his convictions can safely be left with the reader. It is a difficult matter to decide on aching back or any of the ills caused by disordered kidneys. How to cure the trouble is of much more importance, and the most exacting resident of Mayville cannot ask for any better authority on this point than that given by Mrs. James Molan of 219 Lee street, who says:

"Our son was greatly troubled with his kidneys, and although he used many remedies nothing brought lasting relief. We learned about Doan's Kidney Pills, and his father went to J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets, and got a box for him. We are proud it proved its great value. We most heartily recommend Doan's Kidney Pill to others suffering from kidney disease."

LAW WAS UPHELD

A Nervy Sheriff Saved a Negro From Being Lynched by an Angry Mob.

ATTACK MADE ON THE COUNTY JAIL

After Ample Warning the Officers Opened Fire, One Man Being Killed and Two Wounded.

The Arrival of State Militia Averted Further Threatened Troubles. The Prisoner Taken to Attants Under Guard.

Carrollton, Ga., June 8.—The nerve of Sheriff Joseph Merrill upheld the law of the state and saved the life of a Negro from a mob. In protecting the Negro, who was saved from the gallows only a few hours before through the efforts of his lawyers, one life was lost and two others wounded. The arrival of the state militia averted further threatened trouble, and a special train bore the Negro, whose crime was the murder of a little white boy whom he found fishing alone at Atlanta under guard. The boy was killed after attempting to escape. The jailor was George Brown, of Carrollton, and the wounded men are Thomas S. Ward, father of the murdered boy, and an unknown man, presumably a farmer.

Williams, the Negro, who caused the trouble, was tried and found guilty of murder on the 1st instant, June 1, 1904, and sentenced to be hanged Friday. He was in the morning refused a new trial, but his attorneys filed a bill of exceptions, and carried the case to the supreme court.

A large crowd of people had come to town to witness the hanging, and when the sentence was pronounced had been taken to the supreme court there was much excited talk, which crystallized soon after in the formal name of a mob. At noon the mob made an assault on the jail. They battered down the outside door, descended the stairs, took the sheriff and entered the building. The mob made a demand upon the sheriff for the key to the cell, but were refused.

Mob Advanced on the Sheriff.

They began their advance upon the sheriff and the few deputies which had been able to summon to his aid. They were told to stop or they would be fired upon, but the order was not obeyed.

As the mob advanced down the corridor toward the sheriff the order was given to fire. Bennett fell dying almost instantly. Word, who was in the front of the mob, was badly shot, as was also an unknown countryman. The unexpected flight of the sheriff and his party, however, frightened the mob and they retreated across the jail. Here they broke and ran and were soon divided into little groups discussing the event. Sheriff Merrill at once consulted Judge Harris of the county court, and it was decided to call upon Gov. Candler for aid. The governor sent two companies from Atlanta. During the afternoon the mob telephoned the situation to friends in adjoining towns, and made an appeal for more men to get possession of the Negro. This was communicated also to Gov. Candler, and he gave orders for a protection of the people of the county. It was read from the steps of the court house by the mayor. The governor commanded the people to disperse, and said the entire military and cavalry force of the state would be used to enforce order if necessary.

Both were hit, but the police made no arrests with confidence. The police were unable to make any arrests at the white house that Mrs. McKinley has not grown worse.

An Open Letter.

We desire to say that our business since January is not up to what we anticipated. We wish to be frank; therefore we are not attempting to sell our goods in the form of a polished essay. The advantage of having merchandise different from the general supply provided, provided that the retailer is known to be reliable. Does not a good deal of advertising do the same? As though the advertisers were indulging too freely in Flim-Flam? Most names mean nothing. Some names mean nothing. Names are invented for goods that have no bearing whatever. They are twisted and twisted until they are no longer recognizable, all of which is done to tone up the name. A name means nothing through it. Fine feathers make fine birds, but fine words do not make fine goods. There are strong buyers in advertising business, but advertising doesn't pay unless conducted in proper basis, and that is to obtain a fair price that will have to sell, and sell it as low as is consistent with legitimate business methods.

Our spring importation of Dress Goods, Wool Goods, Carpets, Bedding and Household Goods is generally complete. Come and learn prices, which will be found to be as cheap as those you are considering. Respectfully,

GEORGE COX & SON.
